I've been reading about dogs in the park and I have a complaint. I live near Hamann Park and people haul their dogs here in cars and let them out to relieve themselves. It's terrible. This isn't a people park it's a dog park. I'm a dog lover and have two dogs but I don't let them go to the park. I'm glad the Campbell parks commissioners want to keep dogs out of Morgan Park. Recently, at Hamann Park I saw a car drive up and let three, big German police dogs out. And one man's been bringing his dog here for over a year. It's kind of disgusting. It would be deeply appreciated if the park people here would do something like Campbell has done.

What junior high school in the Campbell elementary school district is teaching a class on fishing ... during school time? I think a class like this is ridiculous and a waste of taxpayer's money. Hell, we learned to fish while playing hookey in the days of a one room school house. How I yearn for those days.

Budgets go sky high

By PAT SAFFORD

IN THE LAST five years budgets for the five major taxing agencies affecting Campbell residents have skyrocketed; a fact most homeowners can verify when they take a look at their tax bills.

And assessments for the 1978-79 tax year are expected to jump an average of 22 per cent over last year.

This Monday night Campbell city officials will hold a public hearing on the preliminary budget for next year of 9.5 million, a 20.3 percent increase over the 1977-78 tax year. Most of the increase is due to sales tax increases and federal funding since Finance Director Jeff Whittaker didn't figure any property tax increases. The budget was prepared, he explained, as if Proposition 8 is successful next Tuesday. That proposed budget is more than double that of six years ago when the city spent $4.1 million.

A CHECK with five taxing agencies shows the biggest overall increases were in the West Valley Joint College District where the total budget went from $20.5 million in 1972-73 to an estimated $56.6 million this year. That represents a 276 percent increase.

According to college sources, the bulk of the increase was due to construction of Mission College in Santa Clara.

The City of Campbell is next in line for overall budget hikes; from $4.1 million in 1972-73 to $7.9 million estimated for the tax year ending June 30. Biggest increase has been in sales tax revenue which more than doubled to $2.3 million this year and federal and state grants and funding for capital improvement projects. Property taxes have increased by 23.1 percent over the five years, the lowest of the taxing agencies, from $1.3 to $1.6 million.

THE CAMPBELL Union High School District budget took a big hike since 1972-73; from $19.3 million to $29.4 million or a 52.3 percent increase. Property taxes rose even higher, by 71 percent, as the state funding for local schools decreased.

The college district and the county show the biggest increase in the number of full-time equivalent employees with a 55.9 percent increase for West Valley and a 47.2 percent hike for the county.

The addition of the new college boosted employees from 615 to 950 at the college while a federally-funded CETA program accounts for 600 of the 12,145 county employees today. In 1972-73 the county employed 8,251 persons.

The most revealing sign that things are costing us more today is in a breakdown on per capita or per student costs for the agencies.

IN 1972-73 the city spent $150.46 per person for city services and programs compared to an estimated $267.34 this year. The college district per student costs rose from $2,401 to $4,860 in five years while the Campbell elementary district went to $1,182 per average daily attendance to $1,853 this year. Costs for county services rose from $239 per capita in 1972-73 to $358 in 1977-78 and the high school district costs also jumped from $1,215 per ADA five years ago to an estimated $1,844 this year.

The following breakdown gives the total figures and percentage increases comparing estimated budgets this year with that of 1972-73.

Election '78

Heavy turnout expected June 6

VOTERS ARE expected to go to the polls in record numbers this Tuesday, according to a spokesman for the county Registrar of Voter's office.

Polls open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. on June 6.

The issue which promises to bring out more than 70 per cent of the 11,327 registered voters in Campbell is the controversial Jarvis-Gann initiative (Prop. 13).

According to the registrar's office, registration in the Campbell precincts have gone up by 1,000 in the last month and the number of absentee ballots received indicates, "extremely heavy voting. This will be one of our peak years."

Locally, registration has gone up by more than 20 per cent since the April, 1976 primary when 9,110 people were registered.

DEMOCRATS hold a strong numerical lead in Campbell with 6,422 voters compared to 3,579 for the Republicans. The American Independent Party has 199 voters locally with the Peace and Freedom Party another 33. Those who declined to state their preference or "miscellaneous" voters total 1,098.

Since the PRESS is printed on Tuesday evening there will not be time to get the election results in for the June 8 issue. Complete precinct breakdowns will be carried in the June 15 issue.

For the PRESS endorsements see page 3 of today's paper.

You're invited to a 'Farewell to School' party

Quito School students, faculty and staff invite those who have taught, attended or had children at the 12500 Quito road school to a "Farewell to Teachers and School" party this Wednesday, June 7, from 2:30 to 6 p.m. A reception will also be held that afternoon for retiring teacher Betty Haynes and retiring secretary Siusiadh Rasmussen. Since Quito School was opened in 1952 three principals have been: at the helm including Dorothy Sutter, Galen Wilcox and the present principal Ralph Dill. In the early 1960's 1,000 students attended the elementary school scheduled to close its doors for good in June. Today there are 250 children and by next year that figure was expected to dip below 200. Students will be transferred to Forest Hill and Marshall Lane schools. For the past two years the "O" in the Quito School sign has kept mysteriously disappearing (see photo upper left). Today, that sign seems appropriate.

Jarvis-Gann deserves 'yes'

CALIFORNIA is noted world-wide as a place where new trends are born, flower and spread far beyond our borders. It may just be that on election day, June 6, another of those phenomena will go forward. The Jarvis-Gann initiative may only be the latest skirmish in the taxpayers' revolt. Or, it could be one of the decisive battles in the war.

Proposition 13 is in a tradition of radical California "populist" initiatives which set out to drastically rearrange the relationships between government and the governed. Few of them have succeeded fully. They date back to the 1890 era of Progressives when Hiram Johnson fought the railroads, Teddy Roosevelt fought the trusts, and the initiative and referendum first became part of California's constitution. And they all have the effect of "sending a message."

Jarvis-Gann, like the Ham and Egg movement or the Townsend Plan of the 1930s, presents voters with a chance to make giant changes in government policy.

In our view, the public is ready for a radical change in the way the tax burden is shared. It is also ready for a firm cap on the unlimited growth of government spending.

The legislature proved in its tortuous wrestling which finally produced the Behr bill, to counter Jarvis-Gann, that it really doesn't read those messages yet.

The impact, should Jarvis-Gann pass and if it can escape being bottled up in the courts, will be serious for local agencies — some of which could be crippled until the state reallocates funds from other sources. But it is clear from the huge surplus of tax dollars sitting in Sacramento that such funds are available for reallocation.

Out of the welter of cross-claims, a few facts do emerge. The rapid rise in assessed values based on spiraling home prices has had horrendous implications for many homeowners living on incomes that go up nowhere near as fast.

The budgets of local government and educational institutions have gone up far faster than the private sector because the funds were available, not because of the frequently heard "public demand for increased services."

In our system of checks and balances, the courts and the legislature can work to prevent the major dislocation that might emerge from the excesses which Jarvis-Gann opponents fear.

But it remains clearly the major single effort that will bring home the public's concerns frontally. As such it rates a "yes" vote on June 6.

County assessor

Andy Bonfield is our choice for county assessor. He has the right combination of experience, talent and independence needed for this post.

A tax consultant for 12 years, Bonfield has represented individuals and small businesses before state and federal income tax authorities and the assessment appeals board.

He has business management experience, something which is essential to run the 300-person assessor's office.

He is independent, an essential quality for a post which has been handed down to insiders for more than 50 years. Bonfield does not work in the assessor's office or in any branch of government and can offer a fresh perspective that only an outsider can.

Ballot propositions

CALIFORNIA voters face yet another long list of ballot propositions on June 6, covering such controversial topics as tax reform in Jarvis-Gann, and also a cluster of some more obscure political concerns.

Here are our recommendations on the propositions:

Prop. 1, State School Building Aid Bond Law, YES. There are still some growing school districts in the state which need assistance to finance necessary building.

Prop. 2, Clean Water and Water Conservation Bond Law, YES. The bond law would provide funds for vital anti-pollution and sewage treatment projects.

Prop. 3, Taxation Exemption — Alternative Energy Systems, YES. The measure provides a time-limited exemption and an incentive for use of systems such as solar heating and cooling.

Prop. 4, City Charters — Board of Education, YES. The measure prevents disenfranchising voters who live outside a city's boundary but within a school district, in elections on city charter amendments which relate to the school district.

Prop. 5, Administrative Agencies, YES. The courts, not state administrative agencies, should decide whether or not a state law is constitutional.

Prop. 6, Sheriffs, NO. The measure would require that all county sheriffs be elected rather than appointed, which seems unnecessary as well as restrictive.

Prop. 7, Local Agencies — Insurance Pooling Arrangements, YES. Governmental bodies such as cities and counties could save money by joining in insurance pools for certain types of claims.

Prop. 8, Owner Occupied Dwellings — Tax Rate, YES. Alternative to Prop. 13, Jarvis-Gann. This measure, if approved and Prop. 13 defeated, would activate tax reforms being demanded now by California citizens but is a step in the right direction. If 13 passes, Behr would not become law.

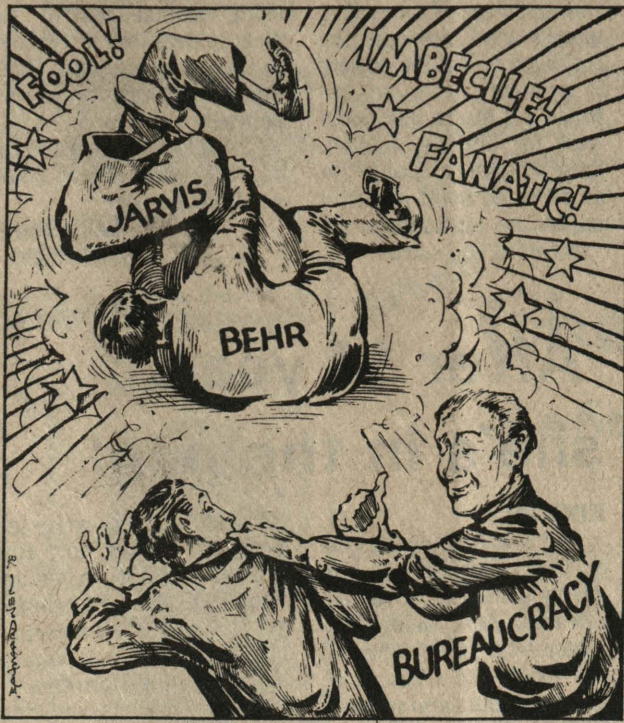

Prop. 9, Interest Rate — Judgments, YES. Would give the legislature authority to set interest rates on court judgments to reflect current economic conditions, under a 10% limit.

Prop. 10, Taxation — Rehabilitated Property, YES. Provides a tax incentive for home and neighborhood rehabilitation.

Prop. 11, Taxation — County Owned Property, YES. Prevents a newly formed county from taxing property within its limits which belongs to its "parent" county — thus saving the local taxpayers money.

Prop. 12, Constitutional Officers, Legislators and Judges Compensation, NO. This measure would empower a new agency to set salaries of state officials, thus further removing control over spending from the voters.

Prop. 13, Tax Limitation — Initiative Constitutional Amendment, YES. (Jarvis Gann) Spurred by the taxpayers' revolt, the measure would force dramatic re-alignments and setting of new priorities in runaway government spending.

Superior court judges

Taketsugu Takei, Fred Lucero and Bruce Allen are our choices for the Superior Court. All three are judges currently and we'd like to see them continue to serve on the court.

Takei has been a judge for nearly two years. Before that he served as state director of consumer affairs, deputy public defender, deputy legislative counsel and was an attorney in private practice.

Lucero was appointed a judge in November 1976. He has 14 years of experience as an attorney and is supervising judge for the family court.

Both of these men are dedicated to making the court system more accessible and more understandable to the public. They have a deep commitment to justice, rooted in years of community service.

Allen has been a judge for 12 years. He has worked hard and has some interesting ideas for court reform.

It should also be noted that Charles Gordon is now running unopposed, although Wester Sweet's name will appear on the ballot for superior court judge. Sweet withdrew from the race.

Rusty Hammer has run a vigorous campaign in his bid to face Assemblyman Richard Hayden (R-22nd district) in November. His

12th Senatorial district

In the 12th Senatorial district, incumbent Democrat Jerry Smith has proved to be one of the most effective lawmakers in Sacramento. He has a keen insight into the legislative process and understands the needs of this area. In the Republican column, former State Sen. Clark Bradley is seeking to regain a seat lost to Smith. He is the better qualified of the two candidates seeking the GOP nomination.

Supervisory district 4

Supervisor Rod Diridon (4th district) has done a superior job of providing leadership in regional issues during his term of office. He has also effectively represented residents of the West Valley cities. We believe he has earned the support of the voters for a second term.

County sheriff

Six candidates are vying for the office of county sheriff. Of the six, five are currently members of the sheriff's department, and one is a San Jose police sergeant.

Our choice to continue as sheriff is James Geary, a veteran of 30 years with the sheriff's office and seven years as sheriff.

Geary has been an innovative sheriff, most recently instituting a burglary prevention program featuring a public information campaign to aid homeowners. He has also been instrumental in forming a countywide narcotics task force, establishing a women's residential center for rehabilitation of female offenders, centralizing criminal history records, and setting up a work furlough program for convicted offenders and a rape prevention program.

We do not think the countywide drop in crimes of rape, theft and property crimes would have occurred without his effective leadership, and we urge his re-election.

Our readers write

How about a dog walking permit?

EDITOR:

My first reaction to the story in the Campbell PRESS that dogs were to be banned (still) from Morgan Park was one of anger. "Ha!" I thought. "Anyone can conduct a 'survey' and come up with the responses they want, depending on how they phrase their questions."

And meantime, someone like me, who pays taxes in the City of Campbell to support that park, and who lives within walking distance, will never go to the park (except on the 4th of July — a day when EVERY dog should be locked up for his own protection) because my idea of "taking a walk" is to take Fido with me.

And I don't believe those stories about how dog bites have occurred because many times a bite is the result of ineptness in approaching a dog on the leash — who tend to get overprotective.

After I got through grousing to myself for an hour, I thought writing a letter to the commission or the paper isn't going to do any good unless I take additional steps to prove (?) that what I say is just as factual. And then that doesn't change the situation.

I firmly believe that there are solutions to problems involving differing opinions and I started wondering if the parks commission might be amenable to an alternative.

Commissioners, city councilmen, and park devotees, would you consider issuing a permit for "dog walking privileges?" This would be a permit applied for by me, a citizen of Campbell, putting myself on record as a responsible dog owner. I would carry this permit on my person at any time I took my dog to the park, and would happily show it to anyone on demand.

Currently, if the park monitor sees any dogs, he is obliged to ask the owners to remove them, so this would not make additional work for anyone. In fact, those who have applied for an received such a permit might be influential in "spreading the word."

I am entirely in favor of using animal control to pick up dogs that are stray in the park and hope that this will continue to be the policy.

I am looking forward to hearing your ideas regarding the above.

elective course at Campbell Junior High School and a similar course used to be offered at Rolling Hills Junior High but wasn't available this year.

I just wanted you to see an interesting example of needless government spending. Our government has deteriorated so much they can waste money like this but cannot allow our senior citizens enough to live decently on. Looks like a good clean-up is needed desperately and fast. Hopefully, the passage of Proposition 13 will get the ball rolling.

Voting "Yes" on 13

Editor's note: The reader dropped off a list of funded programs in the U.S. budget published in the August 19, 1977 newsletter of the local Better Business Bureau. It listed such projects as: $16,000 to look into the bisexual behavior of Polish frogs, $375,000 to determine if Frisbees might be used to carry flares, $71,000 for the history of comic books, $121,000 to find out why so many people say "ain't," and $70,000 to conduct research on the perspiration smell given off by Australian Aborigines.

Dear frustrated managers of Campbell Bobby Sox league: I don't believe you can count. The last article I read on our league had five girls mentioned, not two. My daughter's name was one of them. It would seem that my daughter's manager did her homework and made the person responsible for these articles aware of the outstanding plays in the game. It's your responsibility to do the same. If it were true that what you implied was favoritism, aren't you ashamed of airing the league's dirty laundry in the newspaper rather than making a direct approach to handle the situation? Now managers... take your responsibility, but be careful, you have from 12 to 15 girls and possibly one of their parents will write a letter to the Campbell PRESS complaining that their daughters were not mentioned.

A Parent who is sick of people who put the blame on others!

About those school buses that play rock music for students in the Campbell (elementary) district, just how much is it costing the taxpayer? I found out they have three speakers.

Parent and Taxpayer

Editor's note: According to Ruby Giese, administrative assistant for the district, the cost for each radio, if purchased separately, would be about $125. The two present buses, plus the new ones on order are equipped with two-way radios and a PA system in addition to the AM radios. At some future date the district plans to have a communications system set up between the corporation yard and the buses.

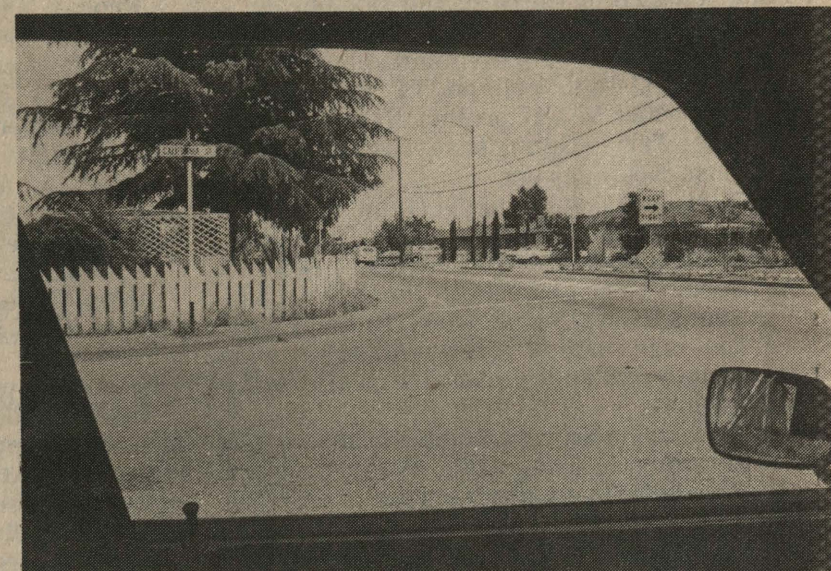

My concern is about a sight obstruction at the intersection of California st. and Budd avenue; the northeast corner. As a person would be turning off California onto Budd in either direction they cannot see oncoming cars in time. Small cars especially cannot be seen at all due to a fence and shrubbery planting on that northeast corner. I called the city sometime ago but have heard nothing.

Concerned Motorist

Editor's note: I went out with the photographer in her small car to take a look (see photo) and we found you have to edge the vehicle out into the middle of the north lane in order to look east on Budd avenue. Charlene Case, administrative aide for the Public Works Department said Thursday she is making out a service request on your call and it will be investigated. If fences or shrubbery (in this case a cactus) are situated so as to obstruct the view the city can, and does, send a letter to the property owner requesting their removal, relocation or pruning. If this isn't done in a reasonable amount of time the city can do the work and bill the property owner.

Any gripes, kudos, or ideas? Call 378-9136 to sound off.

This is the view the driver of a small car has at the corner of California and Budd avenue. In order to get a clear view of westbound traffic the driver has to pull out into the street. (Photography by Amy Huntoon)

Hawaii bound?? Stop by PIECES OF EIGHT at 250 Levers Rd., in Waikiki, for a superb dinner, great entertainment of "Grant Chapman" & the friendly Island hospitality of owner John McManus, & his crew, Donny, Herbie, Perkins, & all the pretty waitresses. Spectacular cuisine & libations... Aloha!

The GOOD EARTH W/its 3 locations (Palo Alto, Cupertino & newly opened Santa Clara) have really started a new boon for diners who enjoy eating good, wholesome foods that are made "fresh from scratch" & are moderately priced. Serving breakfast, lunch & dinner you can enjoy a wonderful meal choosing from their abundant menu. You may select one of their creative sandwiches, famous omelets... or try their Beef Stroganoff & Shrimp Curry prepared in a Chinese wok. For a fabulous dessert, you might choose their famous recipe Carrot Cake or delicious Honey Walnut Coffee Cake.

Dining amongst the memorabilia at CLEMENTINE'S w/put you in a nostalgic mood... you & your favorite gal w/enjoy remembering about the days when your piano held all the sheet music that is adorning one wall in CLEMENTINE'S — you'll see other mementos of the past. The Continental menu is being acclaimed by one & all. It is served w/style & inspiration by charmingly dressed waitresses who give efficient service. I highly recommend you stop by for either lunch or dinner — remember there's plenty of free parking, too.

Let's face it. It almost costs an arm-and-a-leg to take the family out to dinner at some restaurants these days. But I'm happy to report that SIRLOIN AND BREW UNLIMITED is holding the price line. Gen. Mgr. Ed Driscoll sent me his latest menu & I see that you can still dine on steak, huge salad, unlimited bread, butter, plus all the wine, beer or sangria for $4.89. And the Child's Dinner of Chopped Steak or White Fish is still an unbelievable $1.95 w/unlimited cola! What a family buy!

One of the great family treats is taking "the group" out to a Chinese restaurant where all the kiddies can order to their hearts' content — mixing & matching Chinese entrees. HWEI FU SHING restaurant is a good example. If you enjoy Chinese cuisine, the PANG ON LVI FAMILY roll out the red carpet to everyone & are especially compatible w/families... children are always very welcome. Try it!

Grammar school study

How much to gird up the old timbers?

A CITY COMMITTEE, looking into the acquisition of the old Campbell grammar school, got off to an ambitious start last Tuesday night.

In the next six months the Grammar School Task Force plans to complete a study of the structural condition of the building, come up with cost figures for renovation and compile a list of possible uses for the property by community groups.

The 11.29 acre parcel at the northeast corner of Campbell ave. at Winchester belongs to the Campbell Union School District. Constructed in 1922, the building served the elementary district until 1964 when it was leased by West Valley College as a temporary campus.

In 1976 the college completely vacated the site. Since then the building has been the target for vandals with several small fires set within the building, interior walls kicked in and most of the windows broken.

CAMPBELL CITY OFFICIALS have given notice they would like to acquire the site for a senior-neighborhood center. And they backed that notice with $275,000 in estimated federal HCD funding for 1978-79 and an additional $220,000 tentatively included in the city's HCD plan for the following two years.

Several months ago the school district filed a parcel map with the city showing plans to divide the property with the school district offices and frontage on Third street to Civic Center drive as one parcel with the balance for possible development. Since then, a second, revised map has been filed and accepted which includes the entire 11 plus acres (and the district offices at 155 N. Third st.).

A subcommittee of the task force was scheduled to meet Tuesday to begin a poll of local organizations. The idea is to find out who has use for space in the building if it were to become available, explained Terry Ellis, city administrative assistant.

BOTH THE PLANNING and building departments will be drafting plans for a study of the structure to find out what condition it is in and what renovations will be needed.

"Although the building is believed to be structurally sound, this may only be accertained by a structural engineer," an earlier report by the Planning Department noted.

The task force hopes to get approval for funding the study from federal HCD revenues.

A rough estimate of renovation costs, included in a report to the task force, ranges from $500,000 to $2 million. The cost of acquiring the property and furnishing is not included.

Possible sources of funding for the project include federal revenue sharing and HCD funds, the general tax fund and a possible bond election. Government or private grants may also be available for part of the cost.

A REPORT PREPARED by Ellis earlier this year lists eight possible funding sources including Title V of the Older Americans Act, Title II-Model Projects on Aging (both federal programs), 1976 state park bond act funds, the Duke Foundation, Inc. and the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966.

The next meeting of the task force is set for Tuesday, June 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the City Hall employee's lounge, 75 N. Central ave. Visitors are welcome.

The old Campbell grammar school at the corner of Winchester and Campbell ave. has seen better days. Originally constructed in 1922 the building has been vacant now for more than 2 years and vandals have taken their toll. Last week an 8-member task force took action to arrange for an inspection of the building and to find out who would be interested in using it if the city acquired it for a neighborhood center.

Loved one sees right through you, Taurus

June 3 through June 9

ARIES (March 21-April 19): It's sink or sail this week, Ari. Winds of chance propel you to do creative thinking. Recall past and avoid repeating error.

Busy week ends with a buss.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Emotional commitments take top priority. Taurus, and no excuses will be permitted. Loved one sees right through you. It's not that this person is so terribly intuitive, it's just that you're so transparent. Week ends with a blush.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): You know how fuss-budgety you become when things get out of control, Gem, so don't let work pile up this week. Get loose ends under control. Maintain balance. On last day relax and spoil someone.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Time ideal to bury old hatchet, Moonbaby. If peace pipe is offered, accept with grace and puff away. Contentment follows: Week ends with a giggle.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Time for soul-searching, Leo. Take one you trust into your confidence — a learned Libra or perhaps a prudent Pisces. Unseen forces at work on your behalf. One at a distance cares deeply and tries to communicate. Unplug your ears.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Small windfall highlighted. Don't blow it all on gaudy nothings, Virgo — rather some for proverbial rainy day. Invitation due before week is kaput. Keep dance pants handy.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Fishing season begins in earnest as Pisces swims into view. Use new line and you get a real surprise. Love worms its way into your heart and by last day, you glow.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Home and family matters are highlighted. Should dispute arise, act as a buffer for sake of harmony. Slam-bang exit should be ignored. At week's end, abandon responsibility for play. But, Scorp, play in your own back yard.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Change is everywhere. Remain calm, Saj, and keep a steady rudder. Stormy love may be headed for the shoals. With a little wind, a little luck and a lot of imagination you can steer vessel into safe harbor.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Freewheeling newcomer enters picture and dominates your thoughts. Ricky deal may be offered. Turn thumbs down, Cap, and leave arena with your dignity intact.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Emotions run rampant. Social encounter can reduce you to playing role of blithering idiot, and this you don't need. So, keep inner thermostat on "cool" and control situation. Week ends on pensive note.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Ties that bind may tangle, but big todo can be avoided by exercising tact. Don't make impossible demands or exhume old bones. Libra enters picture, and week tangles to a torrid fini.

$6 million in capital improvements planned

THE CITY OF Campbell is eyeing $6 million in capital improvement projects in the next five years and estimates they'll have $6.2 million in federal, state, county and local funding to pay for it.

The tentative list, which includes $1.2 million in current approved projects, is now making the rounds of city advisory groups for comment. A final draft of the plan will be presented to the City Council in August.

Included is $300,000 for undergrounding utilities on downtown Campbell avenue, $880,000 to purchase land and build two new fire stations and $600,000 for reconstruction of city streets.

Biggest ticket item for the current year is $315,000 for Phase II of the Los Gatos Creek Park project. Last Monday night councilmen awarded the bids on the construction phase of the project for $296,000, $30,000 higher than the engineer's estimate. The project, financed by federal, state, county and local funds, will include two pedestrian footbridges, an exercise course, promenade, fishing pier and extensive landscaping.

THE SUNNYOAKS AVENUE street improvements will cost an estimated $300,000 plus an additional $80,000 to install storm drains.

State bonds and grants should pick up the tab for $89,145 in improvements to John D. Morgan Park, including tennis and volleyball courts, horseshoe pits, a south play structure and picnic tables and benches. The city expects a final okay from the state in July.

The $45,000 in revenue sharing to install traffic signals at the north side of the Pruneyard on Bascom ave. represents the city's share. The balance of the $200,000 plus project will be paid for through local assessments.

Also on tap currently is $110,000 for the street maintenance program, $80,000 for a traffic signal at Darryl and Hamilton avenue and $6,000 for the city's share of automatic crossing equipment at the Kennedy ave. railroad crossing. All will be paid for out of special gas tax funds.

Federal HCD funding is to pay for the $94,700 in improvements to the San Tomas area now under study. First priority will be storm drains for parts of Hacienda avenue.

OTHER PROJECTS INCLUDE $15,000 for a paint storage facility for the city corporation yard, $18,000 for sidewalk repair and $35,000 for traffic operation improvements. These will come out of revenue sharing funds.

94. In future planning the $300,000 to underground utilities along Campbell ave., from Third st. to the railroad tracks, will be paid for by the PG & E Undergrounding Fund. An additional $100,000 is estimated in costs to modify buildings along the street to accomodate the underground lines

Fire station costs are estimated at $150,000 for acquiring property and drawing up plans on the Michael drive property plus an additional $480,000 for construction. A third station, to be located in the Victor ave. area is estimated at $100,000 for land and architectural work and another $150,000 for construction. Suggested funding was a local bond issue or city override tax.

SIDEWALK REPAIRS In the next four years, to July, 1982, are tagged at $153,000 with another $92,000 for improvement of traffic operations.

The $600,000 in minor street improvements, over a two year period, would be funded through the 1975 Minor Street Bonds with the city picking up two thirds of the cost and property owners the balance.

Smaller projects listed include $24,000 for renovation of the downstairs restrooms, $12 for sidewalks on Virginia ave. and $18,000 for improvements to the Bascom-Hamilton ave. intersection.

Major street work on the drawing boards includes $464,000 for reconstruction and improvements of Winchester, between Hacienda to the south city limits, $348,000 for Pollard road street improvements and $285,000 for Railway ave. street improvements.

Also being considered is $250,000 for reconstruction of

THE TIME FOR CHANGE IS NOW!
ASK YOUR LOCAL DEPUTY SHERIFF
WHY?

Committee to Elect Robert Winter Sheriff, 365 South Redwood, San Jose, CA

VOTE YES ON PROP 8

"So many of the good things our community governments have been able to accomplish here in California seem to me to be headed out the window if the Jarvis-Gann initiative should pass. I mean things like rational planning and an accountable decision making process."

"Jarvis-Gann, Proposition 13, would force local jurisdictions to seek monies from the state and Federal government in order to maintain basic services. Along with that they assuredly would lose their voice in how those services should be administered."

"Conversely, Proposition 8 and the Behr Bill, already signed into law, but requiring the voters approval for its enactment, is a measure for significant property tax relief and limits government spending without chaos to our communities or loss of local control."

Howard Campen
Retired Santa Clara County Executive

"When a district's estimated income of 11.8 million dollars is reduced by 6.8 million if Proposition 13 passes, it does not take much imagination to see what effect it would have on the educational program. Fifty-eight per cent loss of income will be so devastating it is easier to think in terms of what is going to be left rather than what cuts or reductions will have to be made. Districts will find it difficult to even offer the programs mandated by the education code."

"People have told me that the legislature will surely help us out if Proposition 13 passes. I find no guarantee of that. I wouldn't want to take that risk. There is too much at stake."

Paul Sakamoto
Superintendent of Schools
Mountain View-Los Altos
Union High School District

"As a physician I am concerned that certain vital health services will be cut if Prop. 13 should become law. I'm worried about crippled children services, mental health services, the County paramedic plan and the 911 emergency phone system, the Valley Medical Center burn unit, the spinal cord unit and the neonatal care services."

"Please join me in opposing Prop. 13. Let us preserve the health services so vital to our community and the health of our citizens."

The deceptively simple 'solution' to high property taxes, Prop. 13, would wreck havoc with the budgets of local schools, health programs, criminal detention, libraries, police and fire services, senior citizen programs, county road maintenance—the list goes on. Furthermore, only one-third of the resulting tax relief would go to homeowners. The other two-thirds would go to profit-making businesses.

"There is a sensible alternative: Proposition 8—which constitutionally enacts the Behr Bill, SB1. That would give 30 percent relief to homeowners; shift welfare costs from the local property tax to the state; and put a lid on the taxes local government can collect by forcing a lower tax rate when assessments go up."

"To make these provisions effective, on June 6, Prop. 8 must be passed by the voters, and Prop. 13 must be defeated."

Nancy Burnett
League of Women Voters leader

People for property tax relief effect. Moreover, the disruption will tend to reinforce and possibly deepen the prospects for a widely predicted recession in 1979.

"In the private sector, consumer oriented manufacturers and commercial businesses will be first affected and a secondary set of layoffs will ensue. Real estate will not in all probability be exempted from such a trauma. Rental defaults and a sudden need to cash in on equity in their own residences will force numerous afflicted homeowners to flood the market with houses for sale in a market which will not have many buyers, other than people wealthy enough to speculate and hold on ..."

Robert Mang, Realtor

"It deeply grieves me that all the progress we've made toward a more livable environment could suffer such a serious and sudden setback should Prop. 13 be allowed to become law. The Jarvis-Gann initiative would force local jurisdictions to allow irresponsible development and would virtually stop all parks and open space efforts."

"Worse, Jarvis-Gann is a threat for higher taxes because of the indiscriminate building it will surely permit. We have learned costly lessons from leapfrog development. Taxes spiral because great burdens are forced on existing services."

"I want property tax relief. I've carefully studied the ballot propositions, and I am voting for Prop. 8."

Barbara Green, Director
MidPeninsula Regional Open Space District

"Prop. 13 especially hurts senior citizens. We would lose most of federal-county matching programs because there would be no local property tax contribution."

"These are programs designed to allow the elderly to continue to live independently and to remain in their own homes, and to many of us they are indeed our lifeline."

"We seniors are especially vulnerable to cutbacks in police and fire protection. And, we have to depend to a greater extent than many other citizens on the public transportation, libraries and park and recreation facilities that would be cut out, or way back by Prop. 13."

"We seniors have worked all our lives to pay for these services, and it would be a shame to take them away from us now when we need them most."

Florence L. moncea
Senior Citizen

Pol. Adv. paid for by Santa Clara County "No On 13 Committee," Georgie Ingilis and Glenn Hoffmann, Co-Chairmen; 180 W. St., James St. San Jose, CA.

VOTE YES ON PROP 8

Genuine tax relief without Jarvis chaos.

The major thrust of Proposition 8, which constitutionally enacts SB1 - the Behr Bill is to put tough revenue limits on government spending while lowering property taxes.

Proposition 8 gives owner-occupied homes a 30% reduction every year by putting a revenue limit on local government.

"Much of what the people of California have been able to achieve for themselves to make our government and agencies more relevant, responsive and concerned will suddenly evaporate if Jarvis passes. People who are least able to fight for themselves will be abandoned to despair. Not only will basic and essential services be terribly reduced, but programs of great meaning to many people in need will be eliminated: Community health services, job training programs, mental health clinics, nutrition programs for seniors, crime prevention and drug abuse rehabilitation services, and many more."

"Prop. 13, although it had a good purpose, presents a drastic and extreme solution to higher property taxes. It would suddenly make us very uncivilized. Prop. 8, on the other hand, meets the challenge of our taxpayers' revolt, and effectively reduces our property taxes and puts tough controls on government spending without ruining our society."

FATAL CRASH INVESTIGATED

The coroner's office is still investigating a possible medical cause for a one-car accident last Thursday which took the life of Filmore C. Gardels, 58, of San Jose.

According to witnesses, the man's car was westbound on the San Tomas expressway when it drove into a cement abutment near the north Winchester off-ramp and then rolled or was backed over an embankment and came to rest on a chain link fence in an equipment rental yard.

The man was treated by Campbell paramedics at the scene but died shortly after being rushed to Good Samaritan Hospital.

BUGLAR MAKES OFF WITH FLOWERS

The Freedom Flower Works was reportedly entered last Thursday night or Friday morning and $150 in goods and cash stolen.

Among items found missing were bud vases, a clock, "Snoopy" cups and some baby's breath (flowers).

Put away those swim fins summer recreation cancelled

THERE WILL be no teen clubs or swim programs operating in the Campbell high school district this year, trustees decided last week. This, in response to possible passage of the Jarvis-Gann initiative (Prop. 13) and an estimated $12.9 million loss in revenue.

On a vote of 4-1, with Trustee Mac Martinez dissenting, the board voted to cancel the $98,317 recreation program funded through community service override funds. Total budget of those restricted funds is $285,000 with the balance used for gardening and maintenance.

If the initiative fails, trustees noted, they plan to vote to reestablish the program.

Other possible cutbacks suggested, cancelling summer school and adult education, failed to get approval.

In a report issued last week district officials suggested saving $13 million by using their $3 million in reserves, laying off 180 teachers, 32 management personnel and cutback or elimination of health and library services, instructional aides and busing students.

Also recommended was a salary freeze, cancellation of adult education, work experience and agriculture programs and withdrawing from the vocational education contract.

THE CUTBACKS are assuming the state does not provide more funding for local school districts.

The irony of the cutback in recreation is that it is financed through restricted funds that cannot be used for general operational expense. There is presently a balance of $31,195 in community service funds.

In rejecting the cancellation of summer school the district considered impact on the educational program. Financially, there would be no savings.

With the state paying 80 per cent of the summer school cost and, with local revenue, the district stands to show income of $360,000 on a program which costs an estimated $200,000.

According to Larry Liden, assistant superintendent, present state income for summer school is "almost a push" compared to costs.

Hammer, Truher differ sharply

By PAT SAFFORD

THE TWO candidates seeking the Democratic nod in the 22nd assembly district primary race are a study in contrasts. Rusty Hammer, a young politician with six years of experience in elective office, is using a professional campaign manager and estimates he has spent or encumbered about $12,000 in expenses so far.

Jack Truher, a physicist who has held no elective office but has been a highly visible and vocal activist in the Cupertino school district, is running what he calls a "zero budget campaign." His cardinal rule: "Never accept money from a friend."

THEY ALSO differ sharply on expectations. Truher, who says he can beat Hammer June 6, feels he runs as much chance of serving in the state legislature as he does "in getting run over by a truck." Hammer however, expects to win both the June primary and the November general election against Republican incumbent Richard Hayden.

The main focus of Truher's campaign lately has been in letters and statements challenging Hammer for what he terms "deliberate misrepresentation" about the Campbell man's employment.

Since January, 1978 Hammer has been employed by Nuclear Services Corporation, a Campbell-based firm which offers engineering and consulting services in design and operation of nuclear power plants, some overseas. Truher says he feels Hammer's public relations job with the firm is a contradiction to his stand as an environmentalist.

"Hammer should represent himself as an advocate for the nuclear industry," Truher declares. Most recently the physicist has suggested there may be a connection between Hammer's decision to enter the race and his employment with the firm. Hammer denies it.

"My accepting employment at Nuclear Services had no bearing on my decision to enter the race for the state legislature," Hammer says. "Nor does it have any influence upon my political philosophy."

WHILE Hammer is opposed to the Jarvis-Gann initiative (Prop. 13), Truher is undecided.

"That's a bad question," the 40-year-old Los Altos resident retorted when asked his position on the controversial amendment. "I'm in favor of some things," Truher explained, "like the control of rampant the question of taxation in a very simplistic (form). And I think it will hurt children."

Hammer feels the big cut in property tax revenues mandated by Prop. 13 would have a "drastic, adverse effect on local governments and school districts." But he feels the initiative itself has had some positive effects.

"It's forced us to see what we can do without," he said. The city of Campbell, as well as other cities, works backwards, Hammer said. "First, we set the budget and then set the tax rate. It should be the other way around. We should set the tax rate and then figure out how to spend it."

Hammer says the 30 percent reduction allowed in Prop. 8 is more reasonable. "It gives the property tax relief the people deserve plus reprograms the (state) surplus over five years."

BOTH candidates agree that incumbent Hayden needs to be challenged in November. Truher dismisses Hayden with the statement, "He's inert. He does nothing." And Hammer refers to a "lack of leadership" for residents of the 22nd assembly district.

"Every member of the legislature, Democrat or Republican, bears responsibility (for the current property tax crisis) and Dick Hayden is one of them," Hammer asserts. "Hayden did nothing. He didn't even vote to put Prop. 8 on the ballot and didn't speak out on it."

Hammer can't accuse his primary opponent of failing to speak out on one issue Truher has raised; Hammer's employment in the nuclear energy field.

"Personally, I'm more concerned about smoking than low level radiation (hazards)," Truher explains, "but I object strenuously to this cover-up (of employment). The Los Altos man, who works at the Stanford Linear Accelerator, is also opposed to exporting resources."

"We should not be exporting American energy resources to foreign countries just to keep the nuclear industry alive," Truher states. "It's wrong!" He also feels there is danger in providing nuclear reactor capability to unstable foreign countries. A revolution in those countries, he says, would leave the United States with three options: "World War III, a burning reactor or dismantling. And dismantling takes months."

HAMMER counters there is no "cover-up" about his place of employment and no conflict with his views.

"A nuclear reactor is not a bomb. It's a means of producing energy," Hammer says. "Just because I work here doesn't mean I'm not concerned with waste or with safety issues in the nuclear industry as with any other. How many miners die of black lung disease, for instance? There is no part of the energy industry that doesn't have its problems. Strip mining, sending coal down river and polluting our rivers and streams. And we bury the waste of our cars in the air every day."

Another problem Hammer is concerned about is what he terms the "wait and see" what Washington is going to do attitude among the state legislators.

"I don't think we can afford to do that. California needs a coherent, well-defined energy policy," Hammer adds.

TRUHER, who describes himself as a libertarian/populist, has been involved in trying to get a school voucher initiative on the November ballot and, win or lose in June, he'll still be working to help collect the half million signatures needed.

Under this initiative, the state would give money to pay for public education directly to the taxpayer instead of the school districts and allow parents to use any pri-

What's happening

YWCA brochure on summer out

Summer YWCA happenings that include a wide variety of both adult and youth programs in Sunnyvale and San Jose locations are listed in the new, free brochures now available by calling 295-4011 or 735-8980.

Trips for adults and some for parents and children, day camp, tennis and a program of classes that are different in each neighborhood are listed for summer. All women and girls are eligible to become members of the YWCA; men and boys may participate as associates.

New sessions of classes, clubs and interest groups are planned by the YWCA for four times a year, with special events scheduled at various times. So that women with young children may participate, baby sitting for pre-schoolers is available during most daytime program.

The YWCA in Santa Clara Valley has programs in Sunnyvale, South San Jose, Cambrian Park, East San Jose, and Central San Jose. It is a United Way Agency.

Mountain craft display scheduled

An exhibit of "Santa Cruz Mountain Crafts" will be shown at Frontier Village Amusement Park on Saturday and Sunday, June 3 and 4.

This show, which will exhibit the art of 15 local craftspeople and artists, will feature a wide range of works including pottery, dressmaking and woodwork.

Frontier Village is located on the Monterey Road in South San Jose.

Youth symphony sets final concert

The El Camino Youth Symphony, under the direction of Dr. Arthur P. Barnes, will present their final concert of the season on Sunday, June 4, at 3 p.m. in Spangenberg Auditorium, Palo Alto.

Works to be performed include the overture to the comic opera, "The Bartered Bride," by Smetana; Sinfonie Concertante in B-Flat Major, Op. 84 by Hadyn; and the Symphony No. 5 in E Minor, "From the New World," by Dvorak.

The program is open to the public. Admission is $1, 50 cents for students and seniors.

Fuschia Society holds meeting

The Santa Clara Valley Branch of the American Fuchsia Society will hold their next meeting on Tuesday, June 6 at 8 p.m. at Springer School, 1120 Rose Ave. in Mt. View.

Barbara Schneider of Oxnard, formerly on the board of directors of both the AFS and the NFS will speak on "Bonsai Fuchsias." Visitors are welcome.

P.A. art show set for June

Sculpture, painting, graphics and other media will compete for prizes at an art show to be held June 1 through 4 at Town and Country shopping center, El Camino Real and Embarcadero Road.

Sponsored by the merchants of the center, the show is expected to attract about 300 works of art.

'Round the Runway' is where you'll run

The terrain isn't hilly, or narrow, or tortuous. It won't be steep, or muddy, or slippery.

The track for Moffet Field's "Round the Runway" race on Sunday, June 4 is as flat as a runway, because that's what it is. Participants won't encounter hills, but they will have to cope with a hard wind off the bay that's great to have at your back but a challenge when it's not going your way.

There will be a 7.6 mile and a three mile laid out around the runways near Hangar One, the massive grey former blimp hangar that dominates Highway 101 near Mountain View. The race is open to anyone — you need not have a military connection to enter.

For a registration form, contact LCDr. Bill Hitch at 966-5511 or LCDr. Bill Hartman at 966-5191. Cost is $2 in advance and $3 on race day. Participants must have a valid Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) membership card, obtainable on race day for $4.

Over 70 prizes will be given, including trophies and T-shirts, in all six divisions of the two races. All participants will receive a certificate of completion.

A Navy P-3C "Orion" submarine hunter aircraft will be on display for viewing after the race. Showers will be available for those with soap and towels.

For more information, call LCDr. Bill Hitch at 966-5511.

Herb growing class to meet

A gardening class will be offered through West Valley College District's community services office in June.

"Herb Growing for a Healthy Life" will be offered June 7 from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. This one-day workshop will cover the history, culture and uses of a wide variety of cooking and medicinal herbs. Herb teas and other food prepared with herbs will be sampled during class.

Simple floral arrangements and herb craft, using fresh and dried herbs, will also be demonstrated. The workshops will be led by Louis Saso, who has over 20 years experience in researching, growing and marketing herbs. The workshop will be held at the Saso Herb Gardens, 14625 Fruitvale Ave., Saratoga.

For registration information, contact the college district's community services office at 44 E. Latimer Ave., Campbell, or telephone 379-9415.

Religious musical performed June 4

"Lightshine," an original musical by Beryl Red and Grace Hawthorne, will be performed at the First United Methodist Church, 1675 Winchester Blvd. in Campbell on June 4.

The Sanctuary Choir, dancers, musicians and soloists will appear in the story of a mime on a search through the beatitudes for the secret of happiness. There will be performances — 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Donations will be accepted.

Musical memories featured in concert

"Spring Spectacular VIII," the eighth annual renewal of the De Anza College Chorale's Spring extravaganza, will be staged by the 90-voice group in Flint Center on Friday, June 2, at 8 p.m.

Titled "Get Happy!" the show's theme this year is "Musical Memories of the '20s, '30s and '40s." Featured music will include many of the popular hits of those eras as well as some of the more serious concert pieces created in America at the time.

Royal Stanton will direct the production, assisted by Robert Newton, Flint Center organist and staff accompanist at the college. Instrumentalists Pam Brians, Dale Cox and Warren Uchida of the De Anza Jazz Ensemble will provide backup for the popular medleys from the three decades.

Tickets for the event are on sale at the Flint Center Box Office.

Nutrition notes

Don't lose nutrition while you lose weight

CAN YOU fit into last year's bathing suit? Or even last year's sundress? If not, it's time to lose those pounds accumulated during the winter months.

A recent article suggested, "Why not settle down and get rid of them in a hurry?" The author then went on to promote a menu which contains about 700 calories for the day.

While that may make one lose the pounds fast, it is nutritionally inadequate and contains insufficient calories for more people to perform their daily activities in comfort. When one goes on such a low caloric intake, their first impulse when the unwanted pounds are lost is to start eating too much again. They have not learned how to eat to keep the pounds off once they are lost.

On a daily intake as low as 700 calories, it is impossible to get enough vitamins and minerals. The article in question did not recommend a vitamin-mineral supplement, although one ought to be taken.

A MORE realistic

caloric intake is about 1,000 to 1,200 calories a day. If this intake is consumed along with increased physical exercise, one ought to lose pounds. A safe rate of weight loss is two pounds per week.

The following menu will provide about 1,000 calories per day and ought to result in weight loss for anyone who follows it without any additions. The menu can be varied by substituting equal sized portions of different meats, vegetables, and fruits.

Breakfast — four ounces orange juice, one soft cooked egg, one slice whole wheat toast, ½ teaspoon margarine, and ½ cup nonfat milk, coffee or tea.

Lunch — two ounces broiled beef patty, one slice whole wheat bread, ½ teaspoon margarine or mayonnaise, 1 cup spinach salad with diet dressing, ¼ small cantaloupe, and ½ cup nonfat milk.

Dinner — two ounces broiled chicken breast, ½ cup brown rice, ½ cup broccoli, green salad with diet dressing, ¼ cup fresh strawberries, and eight ounces nonfat milk.

If one wishes 1,200 calories per day, add one ounce chicken and another ¼ cup strawberries to the dinner menu, ½ cup nonfat milk and ½ teaspoon margarine to lunch, and an evening snack of tea and two graham crackers. For either a 1,000 or 1,200 calorie intake, a multi-vitamin — mineral pill should be taken but choose one of a low dosage. Never take 100 percent of the RDA as one must assume that some nutrients are obtained from the foods eaten.

Ralph Mehrkens

WAS ONE OF THE MOST SENSIBLE DEPENDABLE SUPERVISORS THIS COUNTY EVER HAD.

Ralph Mehrkens thought of himself as a "servant of the people" not as "king of the county."

Ralph Mehrkens was a full-time supervisor — he did not scatter his energies but concentrated on his responsibilities as an elected official representing the people in Santa Clara County. He was not preoccupied jockeying for a higher political office.

Ralph Mehrkens was concerned about your tax dollars and budgeted wisely. Since he left the board in 1975 — only three short years ago — the county budget has increased by $150,000,000 and is still going up!

Ralph Mehrkens was always personally available to everyone — not hidden behind a large staff protecting him from the people.

Ralph Mehrkens really listened to you — he might not always agree with you, but he respected your thinking and listened.

Lots of people in Santa Clara County believe they deserve a supervisor like Ralph Mehrkens and have convinced him to run again. They urge you to join with them and re-elect....

Property tax bills-a comparisonPROPOSITION 13

Jarvis/Gann

Protects you 6 Ways . . .

1. REDUCES AND PERMANENTLY LIMITS PROPERTY TAXES TO 1% Rate. Simply adjusts California rate to the National Average rate, leaving the $5 Billion-Dollars we save in lower taxes in our pockets. Why pay More?

2. PROTECTS RETIRED HOME OWNERS by freezing their 1975-76 assessed valuation for duration of their continued ownership, but does not affect what the home can be sold for. Re-assessments are restricted to just 2% per year-eliminating the threat of massive yearly re-assessments.

3. PROVIDES LOWER TAX BILLS TO PROPERTY OWNERS AND FUTURE BUYERS by using the 1% tax rate, reducing tax-included mortgage payments, making it easier for future buyers to qualify for home loans. Re-assessments are then restricted to just 2% per year, protecting you against massive 15-30% re-assessments, helping to allow continued ownership, without the worry of staggering mortgage payment increases.

4. PROTECTS ALL PROPERTY OWNERS AGAINST MASSIVE RE-ASSESSMENT INCREASES by restricting yearly re-assessment increases to just 2% per year for duration of your continued ownership. This will only increase the average home tax bill about $14 per year. Affordable protection.

5. PROTECTS YOU AGAINST UN-WANTED TAXATION by terminating the easy tax creating Present Vote process, returning the MAJORITY VOTE requirement requiring a 2/3rds vote to create new taxes or rate changes. If that many people see the need for new taxes, they will approve them. Returning control of our government back to the people.

- IT DOES NOT reduce Veterans benefits;
- IT DOES NOT reduce tax exemptions for senior citizens;
- IT DOES NOT reduce tax exemptions for churches and charities;
- IT DOES NOT raise sales or income taxes;
- IT DOES NOT limit tax money available for schools;

6. HELPS REDUCE RENT, UTILITY BILLS AND PRICES by taxing businesses equally at low 1% rate. NOTE: Taxes to businesses are just another business expense which is added into the cost of producing the product and passed on to the consumer to pay again in higher Rents, utility bills and higher product prices. Their lower tax can save California citizens Billions in lower prices, rents and utility bills, leaving the savings in our pockets. It also allows California business to compete again with lower taxed out-of-state industry, allowing them to remain in California-saving many jobs.

REVENUE SOURCES FOR TAX RELIEF California is now collecting $51 Billion dollars from our tax payers and spend it as they see fit for more un-necessary duplicated bureaucracy. PROPOSITION 13 challenges this wasteful spending, and the State must reroute 10% or $5 Billion from out State collected revenues to our City and County governments for our essential services. Don't let them deny you a FREE BALLOT CHOICE for tax relief with their cut-back threats. It's our tax money-to be used for necessary services, which will save us $5 Billion in lower taxes, leaving the $5 Billion in our pockets.

Jarvis/Gann

We have everything to gain-its just a matter of rerouting our tax dollars . . . and our responsible representatives are already preparing to do that.

NO ALTERNATIVE

We are at the crossroads, either we the people regain control of our government now, or that government will ignore the voice and will of the people and control us. Proposition 13 provides us that long awaited tool to regain control of our government and how our tax dollars are spent. It's our last chance for permanent tax relief.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED CALL ME 379-4611 379-2022

PROPOSITION 8

Behr Bill

Offers you no protection . . .

1. PROPOSITION 8 legalizes the illegal SPLIT ROLL TAX SYSTEM. It does not lower your property taxes. The BEHR BILL "SBI" already amended by AB 1840 may provide a 30% Temporary Tax-Relief to home owners only.

2. RETIRED HOME AND PROPERTY OWNERS receive almost no long range permanent protection, because inflation will force higher re-assessments, forcing higher tax bills, wiping out the retirement credit, endangering your ability to continue home ownership.

3. PRESENT HOME OWNERS AND FUTURE BUYERS will experience massive tax bills, because Behr Bill continues present tax rates and allows continuous re-assessments every year, now averaging 10-55%, adjusted by a GNP deflator, yielding continuously increasing tax bills and higher mortgage payments every month that can threaten continued ownership and prevent young couples from home ownership.

4. PROVIDES LITTLE PROTECTION AGAINST MASSIVE RE-ASSESSMENTS due to inflation, because annual re-assessments are allowed-regulated by massive inflation and GNP deflator. Your neighbors inflated sales price will force your assessment higher. See tax chart below.

5. PROVIDES NO PROTECTION AGAINST UN-WANTED TAXES because it continues the use of the PRESENT VOTE process, allowing un-controlled taxation to spend as they see fit for more duplicated bureaucracy. To protect their spending ability the BEHR BILL increases the State Revenue Limit which allows the revenue limit to be increased the same percentage that our citizens personal income increases, if the citizens income increases 20%the State revenue limit will be increased 20%-meaning, staggering tax increases are planned.

6. PROPOSITION 8 legalizes the illegal SPLIT ROLL tax system forcing higher taxation on all businesses, utility companies and rental property, which will be passed on to our consumers to pay again in higher product prices utility bills and higher rents every year, wiping out the value of the renters credit, forcing consumers to pay Billions more from their pockets, which allows our legislators to continue the greatest spending in history, spending more than $51 Billion of our tax dollars to create more wasteful duplicated bureaucracy, an amount that exceeds what was used to run the entire UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT on just 20 years ago.

REVENUE SOURCES FOR TAX RELIEF. The Behr temporary relief arrangement will use up the $3 Billion State surplus revenues. Thereafter, funding is to be supplied through higher assessments, yielding higher tax revenues to provide the funding for uncontrolled spending, wiping out the 30% benefit being offered to gain the voters approval of Proposition 8.

High school standards setHow are you on reading Drano labels?

By MIKE MYSLINSKI

CAN YOU read and interpret the directions written on a can of Drano?

Are you able to compute the perimeter and area of a diagrammed figure?

Can you punctuate a sentence correctly and identify misleading statements in advertisements?

If you have difficulty with any of the above, chances you would have a tough time graduating from any of the Campbell Union School District's senior classes.

At its May 23 meeting district trustees approved five pages of "competency recommendations" submitted by the graduation requirements committee, a group composed of district staff, parents and teachers.

OVER THE last few months the committee, in accordance with the requirements mandated in AB 65, has been wrestling with the question: What should a high school graduate know in order to carve out a "minimum" existence in contemporary society?

In a presentation to the board, district director of guidance Wade Schroder said the entire five pages of recommendations, covering the state-mandated reading, writing and math disciplines, would not be included in the test.

He said the 14 general competency requirements for the three disciplines would be included, but the "performance indicators" — specific test areas within the general requirements — would have to be narrowed down.

THE BOARD adopted the competency standards in order to meet the statewide June 1 deadline. Any student who has not met the adopted standards of proficiency will not receive a diploma after June, 1980.

Schroder said students with "diagnosed learning disabilities" may need different test standards.

Major details such as what percentage of test questions must be answered correctly to pass, and the necessary "field testing" of the questions prior to writing the final test, will be handled over the summer by staff.

The following criteria for graduation were adopted by trustees:

In the reading area the student should be able to read and understand written directions, signs, maps, charts, schedules and be able to comprehend the details given in context clues, orders of events and main ideas.

A GRADUATING student should be able to read and extract "pertinent information" from different forms (Social Security, registration, driver's license) and be able to use library resources; also, the student should be able to distinguish between fact, opinion and misleading statements and should be able to comprehend a printed business letter or a handwritten personal letter.

To graduate, a student should know how to apply mathematics in the use of tools and units of measurement, in solving consumer problems, in computation of wages and time increments, in the performance of basic management skills and in the using of numerical information presented in maps, simple graphs and tables.

IN WRITING, the graduate should show competency in the writing of a paragraph or paragraphs that demonstrate grammar proficiency and should be able to fill out job application, Social Security and check forms.

* Approved, at the recommendation of County Counsel representative Brian Carr, a state administrative law judge's decision that 29 district instructors be given their employment termination notices. Calling the decision a "grave injustice," instructors James Baughman and Dale Gilbert two of the 29 asked the board to postpone a decision on the matter.

Gilbert and Baughman attacked administrative law judge Robert Kendall's decision, which was based on seniority, because they claim, probation years were not included in seniority computations.

District superintendent Nick Montesanto said the district made the mistake of using the first year of employment to compute instructors' seniority status when, in fact, the law states the first year of employment is only used to compute an instructor's tenure status.

Eight apply for planning seat

An unprecedented eight individuals had applied for the opening on the Campbell Planning Commission by the deadline last Friday, May 26 at 5 p.m. In previous vacancies 2 or 3 applicants was average.

City Councilmen scheduled interviews for Tuesday and an appointment was expected that night.

Those applying for the vacancy created with the resignation of Oleg Lubekis included: Madge Over-house, 1243 Pollard road, librarian; Donald P. Guiditus, 685 Jeffrey ave., construction superintendent; Joyce-lyn J. (Joy) Maguire, 584 Latimer circle, marketing staff administrator;

Dolores B. Walloch, 3225 S. Winchester, nursery school owner; Roger Freeman, 850 W. Bucknall road, civil engineer; George Kasolas, 1665 Ebbets drive, attorney; William Maddox, 445 Virginia ave., zone manager and Michael Baird, 596 Virginia ave., civic design engineer.

The three women applicants bring to four the total who have applied for a spot on the Planning Commission. Peggy Pack, the first woman applicant, now serves on that advisory group. One hopeful, Madge Overhouse, ran unsuccessfully against two incumbents in the last City Council race.

speak of his considerable catching ability.

Lately, however, it's Walsh's pitching that has them talking — even though he had hurled only six games in seven seasons of baseball and had exactly one inning of Pony League mound work under his belt prior to this season.

Walsh tossed his second three-hitter in four days Wednesday to lead the resurgent A's to a 7-1 romp past the Jacky Boy's Pizza Cubs.

In other action last week, the Magoo's Pizza Pirates improved their record to 6-4 with a 4-1 nod over the Gagliardi Brothers Dodgers Tuesday and the Straw Hat Pizza Pirates held off the Fiorillo's Pizza Giants 6-4 Thursday.

Walsh, who spurred the A's past the Campbell optimist Mets 6-1 last Sunday for their first victory after nine losses, struck out nine while walking nobody during his masterpiece against the Cubs.

In 14 innings of work he has yet to allow an earned run, permitted just six hits and a single walk and fanned 16.

HIS TEAMMATES' long-slumbering bats came to life in his behalf. Paul Sargis rocked a solo homer, Steve Sato belted a two run triple and Jim Walsh and Tony Fisher each added two hits.

The Pirates' Brett Blackwell continued to mystify enemy batsmen, subduing the Dodgers with a four-hitter.

In his last 24 frames the Buc southpaw has three complete game wins to his credit, including a no-hitter and a two-hitter. He has surrendered only two earned runs and seven hits over that span while striking out 32.

Joray Marrojo was three for three at the plate and Lyn Shelton two for two for the winners. Jerry Zaro, the league's leading hitter with a .444 average, broke a 1-1 deadlock in the fifth with an RBI single.

Bill Roberts survived a couple of late scares to secure the mound victory for the Tigers Thursday in addition to going four for four at the plate with three doubles.

The Tigers benefitted from a balanced offense, all eight of the starters that played the entire game contributing at least one safety.

TODD PHILLIPS of the Giants equalled Roberts' feat with a four for four effort. His fourth hit, a double in the seventh, put the tying run on second base but Roberts ended the contest by making a fine defensive play to throw out Ted Ornduff.

League statistics as of last Thursday showed Zaro, a newcomer to the league, the surprise batting leader with a .444 mark, compared to .433 for defending champion Rich Alvarez of the Yankees.

Al Vanegas of the Cardinals is third with a .421 percentage and also paces the loop in hits with 16. John Murphy of the Cubs is tops in home runs with three and is tied with Vanegas for RBI leadership with 11. Dominic Costantino's seven doubles lead that department.

The Cardinals' Tom Gricius has the best earned run average besides Walsh's perfect 0.00 — a glowing 0.42 worksheet. The Yankees' John Imhoof (.073) and the Giants' John Heidemann (.091) are next in line.

Alvarez has whiffed 64 batters in 31 1/3 innings and Roberts has 50 K's in 37-2/3.

Mets nab Moreland minor 1st half title; start 2nd half with victory

By ANNE BRENNAN
MORELAND

THE METS took the Moreland Bobby Sox Minor division first half title and are still undefeated going into this week's games.

There was a three way tie for second place between the Royals, Tigers and Pirates.

The Pirates, however, whipped the Royals 20-5 in the first round of the play-offs on May 19.

According to Royal manager, Pat Montgomery, it was a case of bad defense.

"My team went to sleep," Montgomery said.

The score was 6-4 going into the fifth inning when the Tiger bats got hot and the Royal fielding got cold.

The Tigers will meet the Pirates in the second round of the play-offs on June 2.

The Mets squeaked by the winless Cubs 22-17 on May 23. The Cubs put up a good fight, rallying the whole game, but were unable to claim the win.

The Royals beat the Tigers, 14-6 in their first game of the second-half. Beaner McGrath tossed the win. The Royals executed their first double play of the season in the win.

The Red Sox launched a steady attack against the Dodgers, beating them 11-7 in major action. Vicki Herron hurled the win and Carey Carlson went four-for-four with three RBI's.

The Angels broke a 3-3 deadlock in the eighth inning to beat the White Sox 5-3. Maryann Rumbaugh, the winning pitcher, turned a double play when she caught a line drive and threw to first.

Lisa Penrod smashed a two run double to knock in the winning runs to give the Dodgers a 10-8 victory over the Phillies.

Terri Oberg hurled the win and went four-for-four including a double. Tammy Piekarski got two hits in four tries to drive in two, while Tracy Pacquin was three-for-four.

Dede Nickeson and Karen Schwartz went three-for-four for the Phillies.

CAMPBELL

Run-away scores were the story in the Campbell Bobby Sox minor division as the Angels whipped the White Sox 12-1, the Twins topped the Indians 14-9 and the Royals stung the Orioles 15-7.

In major action, the Pirates defeated the Padres 10-4, the Phillies blasted the Astros 18-8 and the Cubs edged the Mets 9-8.

The Dodgers whitewashed the Reds 12-1 and the Braves outscored the Giants 9-5.

Once upon a time...

MAY 29-JUNE 4

May 29, 1951 — Billy Jo Davidson was signed by the Cleveland Indians for a record bonus estimated at about $120,000.

Davidson never fulfilled the promise the Indians saw in him, failing to throw a single pitch in the Major Leagues.

May 30, 1969 — Mario Andretti set a track record of 156.867 miles per hour in winning the Indianapolis 500.

May 31, 1964 — The San Francisco Giants and New York Mets played the longest game, in terms of time, in Major League history when they battled for seven hours and 23 minutes before the Giants finally won 8-6 in 23 innings.

The 57,037 fans who were present that day certainly got their money's worth since the contest was the second game of a doubleheader. The twinbill took nine hours and 52 minutes to complete.

MARIO ANDRETTI

June 1, 1925 — Lou Gehrig of the New York Yankees began his Major League record of playing in 2,130 straight games, appearing in every Yankee game until May 2, 1939.

June 2, 1963 — Willie Mays hit three home runs in a single game for the second time in his career.

Mays is one of only 10 players to ever hit four home runs in a single game.

June 3, 1950 — Citation set a world record of 1:33.6 for the mile and became the top all-time money winning horse with earnings of $924,630 by winning the Golden Gate Mile at Albany, California.

June 4, 1964 — Sandy Koufax hurled the third no-hitter of his career, tying Bob Feller's Major League record.

Koufax, whose third gem came at the expense of the Philadelphia Phillies, later broke the record by no-hitting the Chicago Cubs. Nolan Ryan has since tied Koufax's mark.

EVER WONDER just how big that "huge" blimp hangar is out at Moffett Field in Mt. View?

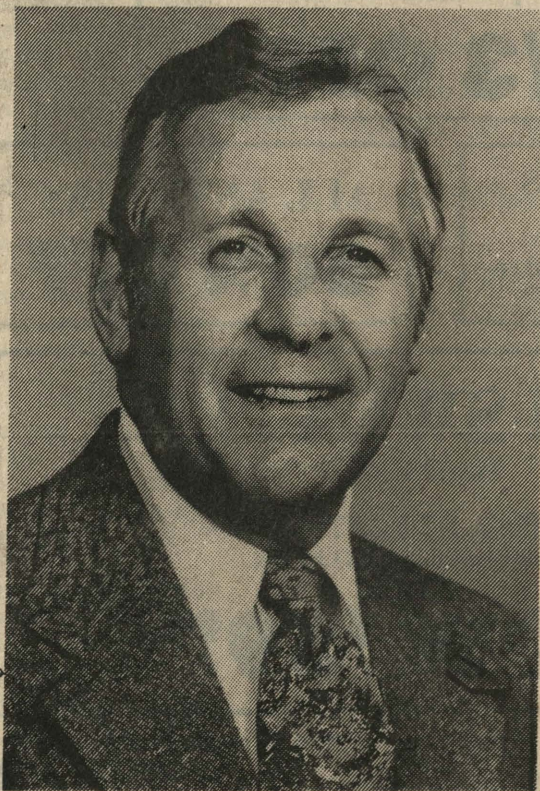

Well, anyone and everyone will get the chance to find out just how big it really is on Sunday, June 4, when the Navy opens its gates for a special "Round the Runway" jogathon.

A pair of courses have been laid out on the Moffett Field runways, one covering 7.6 miles and another covering three miles near the dominating, massive grey hangar. The race is open to anyone — a military connection is not needed to enter.

There will be over 70 prizes up for grabs in the "Round the Runway" event. The cost is $2 in advance or $3 on race day. Participants must have a valid Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) card, obtainable on race day for $4.

WG, Fontanetti's share 1st place in Campbell LL

FIRST HALF champion Moose Lodge finally got into the second half win column last Thursday evening by topping Campbell Plaza 3-1 in major division action of the Campbell Little League.

Moose, which had lost its first two games of the second half to Willow Glen Optimists, rode the pitching of Bill Avery and the hitting of Jerry Pennington to victory.

Pennington blasted a three run homer in the first inning to provide Moose Lodge with all of its runs while Avery shut Plaza down on one run and struck out 13.

Brent Hahn was two for two for the winners while Dave Boss did the same for Plaza.

Willow Glen, meanwhile, remained unbeaten by nudging D's Automotive 3-2 for its third consecutive win of the second half.

Jim Zaccaro notched the win, despite yielding a solo home run to D's Greg Vaughn.

Fontanetti's slipped into a first place tie with Willow Glen by knocking off both Doetsch Building and Robins last week.

FONTANETTI'S opened the week with a 6-3 triumph over Doetsch behind the fine pitching of Dave Meyer.

Frank Ortiz went three for three and Mike Medefesser went two for three for the victors. Wayne Terwilliger was three for three and Dave DeCarlo was two for three for Doetsch.

Four days later Fontanetti's trimmed Robins 3-1 in 10 innings.

George Tsamis keyed Fontanetti's game winning rally in the 10th with a run scoring single. Medefesser picked up the win in relief.

Mike Watari was two for four for Robins.

In the only other game played last week, Breuners topped Doetsch 7-3 behind the pitching of Mark Phillips.

Mark Shanks led the winners at the plate with a clutch, pinch-hit single, driving in three runs.

Terwilliger collected three hits and DeCarlo rapped two for Doetsch.

SOFTBALL WIZARD — The legendary Eddie Feigner will be in San Jose this Saturday to star in an exhibition game against members of the Oakland Raiders in a benefit for the San Jose Police Athletic League. The game will begin at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, June 3 at Spartan Stadium.

Campbell LL on the radio

CAMPBELL Little League games can be heard each Tuesday through Friday at 3:30 p.m. over KRVE radio (95.3 FM).

Weekend games will be on a tape delay on the four weekday afternoons. The broadcasts, produced by GAP Sports Productions, will run all season long.

Feigner takes on 'big' challenge—the Raiders

EDDIE FEIGNER has faced the most talented softball and baseball players in the world in his years as the star pitcher for the traveling softball troupe, "The King and His Court."

The fast-pitch hurling wizard has struck out the likes of Willie Mays and Mickey Mantle and has taken on and beaten the finest fast-pitch all-star teams in cities all over the world.

Well, Feigner and his three teammates will be in San Jose this weekend for an exhibition game that will benefit the local Police Athletic League building fund. And they may have met better teams in their years together than the nine man squad they'll challenge this Saturday — but they've never met a bigger team!

"The King and His Court" will certainly have their hands full on Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at Spartan Stadium when they take on members of the 1977 Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders in a seven inning softball game.

FEIGNER WILL be offering his pitches from behind the back, from second base and while blindfolded to the Raiders in the PAL benefit game that will follow a National Skateboard contest at Spartan.

Feigner will be the center of attention in the softball game with his unlimited variety of pitches. The "King" will be surrounded by teammates Al Jackson at first base, Eddie Feigner jr. at shortstop and John Bateman at catcher for the game. Floyd Berger is the "Court" alternate.

Members of the Raiders who will be on hand for the game will be John Matuszak, Willie Brown, Neal Colzie, Cliff Branch, Dave Dalby, Mike Siani, Mike Rae, George Atkinson and Morris Brandshaw.

Before the two teams lock up in the softball game, members of the National Pepsi Skateboard team will take on San Jose's Winchester Park team in a skateboard contest on a special "horseshoe" ramp that Pepsi will set up at Spartan Stadium for the event.

Also expected for the night's activities at Spartan Stadium are Susan Richardson and Willie Aames, two of the stars from ABC-TV's "popular series "Eight is Enough."

Tickets are available through the PAL at 460 Park ave. in San Jose. Call 277-4725 for information.

Missions wrap up

THE SAN Jose Missions will take on Vancouver, Phoenix and Salt Lake City this week and next at the San Jose Municipal Stadium to wrap up a 13 game Pacific Coast League homestand.

The Missions will close out a three game set with Vancouver on Wednesday, May 31, at 7:30 p.m. at Muni before hosting Phoenix for four straight days, Thursday through Sunday. The first three games begin at 7:30 p.m. with the Sunday game set for a 6:30 p.m. start.

The Sunday battle with Phoenix will air over KX-RX radio (1500) at 6:20 p.m.

Salt Lake City will follow Phoenix into San Jose for games Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday against the Missions. All three games begin at 7:30 p.m.

The Mission "8 to 80 Youth Club" will offer free tickets for senior citizens and underprivileged kids at the May 31 Vancouver game, the June 2 and 4 Phoenix games and the June 7 Salt Lake game. For further information on the program call 294-7072.
